Revolutionary Marker To Be Unveiled Monday May Tenth

The Menotomy Chapter, D. A. R., will unveil the boulder and marker that has been placed on the triangle on the Soldiers' Monument lot, on Monday afternoon, May 10th, at 3 o'clock, with fitting exercises. The boulder, which has been given the Chapter by the Arlington Country Club, holds a tablet, upon which has been inscribed the names of the women of Menotomy (now Arlington) who helped during the Revolutionary War. These have been secured at no little time and difficulty through the efforts of the Menotomy chapter.

The members of the Chapter will meet at the Jason Russell House at 2.30, and march to the monument, where the unveiling will be by two children whose ancestors fought in the Revolutionary War. The vice-state regent, Mrs. Stephen P. Hurd, will be present, representing the state regent. The tablet will be presented to the town by the regent of the Menotomy Chapter, Mrs. Charles F. B. Morton, and it will be received for the town by one of the Selectmen. The public is invited to witness these exercises.

Thirty-Nine Years Of Service This Is The Record Of Lieut. Hooley Of Arlington Police Department

On Saturday of last week, Lieut. Daniel M. Hooley completed thirty-nine years of service in the Arlington police department. He was appointed to the department by the Selectmen, May 1st, 1887, but for two years previous to that he served the town as a special officer. During his connection with the same, Lieut. Hooley has done some splendid detective work that has made him known throughout the state. On May 6th, 1908 he was promoted to his present rank. For many years he has been the town's constable. The lieutenant is married and has one son, Daniel, who is employed in the Menotomy Trust Company. Their home is at 268 Broadway, which has been enhanced in attractiveness since purchased by the Lieutenant through his thrift and enterprise.

REV. CHARLES T. ALLEN
The New Minister of Calvary Methodist Church.

Rev. Charles Thompson Allen, who with his wife, have come to Arlington to reside in the new parsonage but recently built by the people of the Calvary Methodist church and to do its minister, is the third generation of preachers in his family. He is the son of Dr. Clarence E. Allen, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, Omaha, Nebraska. The church in Arlington to which he has been selected to preside over, is fortunate in being able to have such a wide-awake and progressive preacher sent to administer to this growing church.

Mr. Thompson was born in Detroit, Michigan. He attended for a year and one-half, Dartmouth College, and graduated from Ohio Wesleyan University with degree A. B. in 1921, and from Boston University School of Theology with degree of Bachelor of Sacred Theology in 1924.

He first served as associate pastor at the Wesley Methodist Episcopal church, South Boston, after which he became pastor of the Appleton Methodist Episcopal church at Neponset, from which he went to the Methodist church in Norwood, and from there to Arlington. He is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity. He served during the World War and is a member of the American Legion at Norwood Post No. 70. He has been married three years but there are no children.

Fifteenth Anniversary Is Observed St. Agnes Court C. D. of A., Celebrates With Banquet And Entertainment

Fifteen years ago last month, St. Agnes Court, Catholic Daughters of America was organized, then known as the Daughters of Isabella. In observance of this anniversary, the local court held a reunion and banquet on Monday evening in Robbins Memorial Town Hall, when practically all the members attended. The stage was attractively set with palms and the American flag, while at each place was a favor in the form of a paper rose. The Hardy Catering Company served the banquet. The officers, former grand regents, state regent and pastors of the two Catholic churches of this town occupied the head table. Special guests of the evening were the chaplain, Rev. Mathew J. Flaherty, pastor of St. Agnes church; Rev. Dr. Maurice J. O'Connor, pastor of St. James church; and State Regent, Mrs. Katherine Salmon. Each lady was presented with a sterling silver pin as a memento of the occasion.

Miss Frances Ahern, regent, presided over the banquet, after which she turned the evening over to Mrs. Mary F. McCarthy, chairman of the committee. During the evening there were speeches by Rev. Fr. Flaherty, Rev. Dr. O'Connor, Mrs. Salmon, also past regents Mrs. Nellie Doyle Crowley, Miss Anna Scannell, Miss May Scannell and Miss Anna B. Callahan and the present regent, Miss Frances Ahern. An excellent entertainment program was presented, under the direction of Mrs. Josephine Silvery. An orchestra furnished music throughout the evening.

Arlington First Town To Provide Marker For Aerial Navigator

Arlington has the honor of being the first city or town in New England and possibly the first in the United States to utilize the top surface of its largest gasholder as the background for a marker to aid aerial navigation.

Through the courtesy and public spirited cooperation of The Arlington Gas Light Company, Master Sergeant Walter R. Runnels, 101st Observation Squadron, 26th Division Air Service, Massachusetts National Guard has been successful in having reproduced on the top of the large gas-holder located on Grove street, an aerial marker of his design.

The name "ARLINGTON" reading from West to East with an arrow bisecting the name and pointing due north has been painted in yellow letters. The letters are twenty feet high and twelve feet wide. The arrow is sixty feet long. The marker can easily be read from an altitude of five thousand feet.

Pilots of aircraft flying over this section of Massachusetts can now check their course, and also know what town is below them, as they pass over Arlington.

The absence of town designations readable from the air has been a serious handicap for pilots flying from other fields to the Boston Airport, while our own local flyers are confused at times to know exactly what town or city they are flying over.

It is hoped that other cities and towns will follow the lead of Arlington and her public spirited pioneer in markers for aerial navigation. The Arlington Gas Light Company.

This is the sort of public service that actually helps the Aviation program of the United States.

FREE SCHICK TEST CLINIC Protect Your Children From Diphtheria

It is a well known fact that the majority of children between the ages of six months and six years are susceptible to Diphtheria. It is also a well known fact that the greater number of deaths from this disease occur in children of this age group. The Board of Health will hold a free Schick Test Clinic at their rooms in the Town Hall, Arlington, Friday, May 14, 1926, from 3.30 to 5.30 o'clock in the afternoon, and parents are especially invited to bring their younger children to this clinic and have them immunized against this disease. To parents who are timid or doubtful in regard to the treatment, we would advise they seek the advice of the family physician.

Hiram Lodge A. F. & A. M. Ladies Night Notable Event In Lodge Circles

Hiram Lodge, A. F. & A. M., gave a ladies night in Robbins Memorial Town Hall, Wednesday evening, that drew there many of the well known and prominent members of the Hiram Lodge, as well as other lodges in Arlington affiliated with it. The committee, headed by the Master of the lodge, William H. Bunton, provided one of the best entertainments given in the hall this winter.

The chief attraction was the Knickerbocker club, made up of four of the finest male singers to be found in the country. In fact, the club is the champion, having won the title in a recent competition. Their voices are of unusual timber, both in quality and volume, and their selections at this time were such to give entire satisfaction. The solo work of Mr. Arnold the first tenor, and Mr. Kidder, the baritone, was very beautiful, while the ensemble work of the quartet left nothing to be desired. Mr. Greenlaw, with his musical saw, charmed as well as captivated his audience. The other artists were Miss Robinson, mezzo soprano, and Mr. Steel, the bass of the quartet, the latter who entertained with Scotch stories.

At the close of the entertainment refreshments were served and dancing followed until one o'clock to the music of the Colonial Singing orchestra. The committee in charge of the evening was Messrs. Archie Howland (chairman), Chester M. Thorpe, John M. Proudfoot, Howard Ladd, W. A. Peirce, Jr., Ellis Lord, Clifford Strout, Ernest Hesselstine and Edward N. Lacey. A box of chocolates was presented each lady as she left the hall, which was effectively decorated on the stage with crimson rambler roses, palms and ferns.

Arlington Board Of Trade Matters Of Importance Discussed, Charles M. Evans, New President, Presides

Tuesday evening the monthly meeting of the Arlington Board of Trade was held in G. A. R. hall, the new president, Charles M. Evans, taking the gavel for the first time since the election of new officers.

The usual dinner was served prior to the business meeting, followed with community singing. The special guests of the meeting were F. S. Marshall, president of the Malden Chamber of Commerce and Walter Matterson, its secretary, both of whom were warmly received by the organization after being introduced by President Evans.

Eleven new members were admitted to the organization, and the standing committees for the year appointed. Arrangements were made for the honor night to be given the various athletic teams and honor pupils of our High school, on Tuesday evening, June 1st, in Robbins Memorial Town Hall. The public is to be admitted by ticket, which are now being sold by members of the organization. The 10th anniversary committee made its final report, showing that the organization broke about even on the matter of expense.

L. R. Goodwin, for the Merchants committee, outlined the work that this committee is doing toward having merchant memberships in the Board of Trade, and the advantages in the plan. The general idea is that the merchants, by paying a little over the regular membership fee, will receive a good deal of free advertising when the plan is completed.

Mr. Goodwin announced that this committee has secured a jointed flag pole, 12 feet long, which will carry a flag as large as the one used in the uniform decoration plan along the sidewalks. These can be taken down easily and put away in a canvas bag that comes for the purpose. The Board of Trade can secure these for five dollars. They are to be used for residential decorating.

It was voted to hold the June meeting as usual in G. A. R. Hall, at 6.30 and then adjourn to Robbins Memorial Town Hall to take part in the Honor night program.

Senator Charles C. Warren, chairman of the Legislative committee, submitted a written report of what this committee has accomplished as well as what it has endeavored to do during the past year for the benefit of Arlington and its interests. The new proposed highways, new water supplies, bath house on lower Mystic lake and many other things were noted by Mr. Warren. As to the latter, Senator Warren explained that there are so many other senators looking for the same thing that it is impossible to get a bill through.

Warren A. Peirce, member of the committee appointed to try and bring about better conditions in Spy Pond, relative to the unsightly weeds that grow there every summer, reported that the committee chairmaned by A. W. Lombard was working on the problem. It is thought to raise the level of the pond two feet, which is expected will improve the condition of the waters.

The speaker of the evening was Charles W. Elliot, 2nd, the man who made the town planning outline for this town. Mr. Elliot, by use of maps and stereopticon, explained the possibilities for Arlington in the future in the building of new roadways, abolishing the grade crossing and other improvements, his talk following the plan contained in the recent report of the town planning board.

Mr. Elliot stated that these cross highways to take travel from the center of the town, are possibilities that may come in the next 25 or 50 years. His plan as stated is more or less a dream of the future worked out on paper, but shows what can and should be done, not only to relieve traffic congestion, but in order to open up new territory as well as to beautify the town as a whole.

54th WEDDING ANNIVERSARY
Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Hendrick Given
A Dinner and Theatre Party by Their Children.

The 54th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Hendrick, who have resided in this town for nearly fifty years, was noted by their children, who gave them a dinner and theatre party, the dinner served at the Hotel Brunswick, Boston, on Wednesday, May 5, which proved a happy way of observing a notable anniversary of this well known and highly respected couple.

Mr. Hendrick established himself in the boot and shoe business in Arlington 43 years ago, and with the exception of Charles S. Parker, editor and publisher of the Arlington Advocate and Lexington Minute-Man, is the veteran business man of the town. By his honest dealings he has built up a lucrative business, but the best thing is that all these years he has kept the respect and confidence of his fellow townsmen.

The couple were married in Charlestown, May 4th, 1872, in St. Francis de Sales church, by Rev. Michael Supple, the bride being connected with one of the oldest families in the town, that of Robinson. The first six years of married life was passed in Charlestown, after which Mr. and Mrs. Hendrick moved to Arlington. They have resided in their own home at 99 Medford street, for many years. The couple have three sons and one daughter living, all of whom reside in Arlington, and are well known. Philip A. Hendrick, the oldest son, is a Boston attorney, and has served the town as selectman and also as its town counsel. John R. is on the reportorial staff of the Boston Globe and Arlington Advocate, while their third son, Arthur J., is attached to the U. S. Internal Revenue department. The daughter is Mrs. Christopher (Anna C.) Nolan. There are several grandchildren.

"A meeting will be held at the Orthodox Congregational church next Tuesday evening, May 11th, at 7.30 o'clock, to act on the election of a pastor.

MOTHER'S DAY

The word "mother," spoken or in print, brings to every thoughtful one the vision of all life has taught to regard as the best in this human life of ours. She is the centre of that most lovely place on earth which we think of and speak of as "home." It is something of mother's creating and that nation which is a nation of homes is built on a foundation so strong that nothing in the shape of adversity can ever seriously harm it.

It may have been this thought, the importance of the home as a factor in national security, that led President McKinley to inaugurate Mother's Day, which will be observed next Sunday; but whether this be true or otherwise, this fact remains, that to bring to remembrance on a given day, "that mother's face that will be ever young and fair to me" and with that thought the nobleness behind it, will be an important factor in maintaining the best there is in civil life and an inspiration to strive for even higher standards.

THE HELPING HAND

The Massachusetts General Hospital is the oldest hospital in New England and there are only two others in the United States that are older. During the month an active campaign for funds to enlarge this institution will be carried on and in furtherance of the scheme the directors have prepared and sent broadcast a leaflet briefly reciting the history of the hospital and clearly stating for what purpose the money secured would be used.

The name would indicate that the hospital is a state institution, supported by public funds. This is not so. It was started and is maintained by gifts from humane and public spirited men and women and the income from bequests. Neither the state nor the city of Boston contribute public funds to assist in carrying on the hospital. Over two hundred physicians are on its staff, only seven of whom are paid.

Following the example set by this first hospital, other communities in the state have established similar institutions until they are spread somewhat thickly in the Commonwealth. Arlington is one of these communities and a campaign for needed funds for enlargement of Symmes Arlington Hospital has just closed. The Mass. General Hospital, in its appeal for increased support, has deemed it wise to answer its own question, "What is the Mass. General Hospital?" with the following facts:

The first hospital in New England, opened in 1821.
The birthplace of anaesthesia—painless operations.
The birthplace of appendicitis operations.
The birthplace of puerperal fever isolation.
The donor of wonderful X-ray knowledge.
The originator of Hospital Social Service.
A training school for young physicians.
A training school for expert nurses.
A student of industrial and occupational diseases.
The haven of refuge for over 388,429 patients from 574 cities and towns in Massachusetts, outside the Metropolitan District of Boston.

The haven of refuge for nearly 10,000 patients from other New England states.
A home for those requiring psychopathic treatment.
The free adviser of any local practitioner.
A study-center of disease, its avoidance, treatment and cure.
A place where eminent doctors give themselves most generously to the afflicted.
A pioneer, benefactor and blessing to man kind.

The hospital center of New England.
All hospital supported by generous gifts, and without support from city or state.

Will those of our readers who have not as yet contributed to the Symmes Arlington Hospital fund look over the above list, note how many of the items apply to this as well as to the great institution to which all refer, and if possible add their gift to those already made or pledged.

CAMBRIDGE CHRONICLE
EIGHTY YEARS OLD

Today marks the eightieth anniversary of the issue of the Cambridge Chronicle as a weekly newspaper in that city. It has known the vicissitudes incident to newspaperdom and has been published under the management of eight different owners, the most lengthened period of such ownership being fourteen years, but has met nothing to prevent the weekly issue.

In 1891 the Chronicle came into the control of the Cambridge Chronicle Co., C. Burnside Seagrave, editor and manager, and during the past thirty-five years, under this control, has gone from one onward step to another until today it stands in the front rank of local papers, with properly written plain on every page of the sixteen or more that are included in each weekly edition.

Mr. Seagrave had several years of experience in the newspaper field before obtaining control of the present plant and his success is proof that business ability was coupled with his equipment for success in the editorial department. His has been a busy life outside his business career, having held important places in the city government and served as the representative from one of the Legislative districts.

The congratulations we offer are to the publication that has outlived scores of contemporaries and to the man who, growing gray in the service, has nothing "old" in personality or the newspaper he manages.

Last week's Chronicle noted the fact that the date of the city charter of Cambridge, and the date of the first issue of that paper were the same, May 7, 1846.

FRIDAY SOCIAL CLUB
SPRING CARNIVAL

The Friday Social Club of Arlington Heights gave what was called a "Spring Carnival," Friday and Saturday of last week in Robbins Memorial Town Hall. It was the most pretentious affair of its kind held in the town for many a day and the club is to be congratulated on the manner in which it carried out every feature from the Fortune teller to the fish pond, the latter arranged in a clever way with an actual pool of water and fish.

Never has the hall presented a more fascinating picture with its beautifully decorated booths, most of which had the latticed uprights. There was a table in two shades of lavender, another in black and white, another trimmed with May baskets, another with the Japanese lanterns, another arranged to represent a brick country store with its awning of green and white, a lemon tree of artificial fruit (each containing a grab) was a clever conceit. The fortune teller's tent outside of which was a garden of hollyhocks made of paper and the mystic hand over the door, where Madame Cooper told fortunes, was another feature. Mrs. Frank W. Garrett and Mrs. George Clark, in gypsy costume, steered the company to the mystic tent. One of the tables with its paper apple blossoms and bird cages made of worsted with a tiny bird inside, was another novelty. The frankfurter man in his booth and dressed in the typical manner was still another, while the ring toss in each corner, one where boxes of candy was the prize to the lucky tosser, attracted attention, especially as the attendants were in real Japanese costumes.

The supper both evenings was well patronized, while the entertainment provided was splendid. Tea was served Friday afternoon on the stage from attractively arranged tables, when the presidents of the different Women's Clubs of the town were guests. The tea was under the direction of Mrs. Edward N. Hall, chairman, Mrs. Taudien and Mrs. John Ross, assisted by a group of girls. The supper Friday evening was chairmaned by Mrs. John Copp and Mrs. Charles Irwin, assisted by Mrs. H. E. Lewis, Mrs. C. Lill, Mrs. H. C. Cathcart, Mrs. A. F. Brown. The Saturday night supper was chairmaned by Mrs. John F. Biggs, assisted by Mesdames Harold L. Stratton, H. C. Cathcart, John Barker and Miss Caroline Nourse.

There was a splendid array of saleable articles on every table, which showed that members of the club had not wasted their time during the winter months. The frogs, little Alfred Patterson and Harold Cruller, hopped about the hall to the amusement of the buyers, while the clowns did stunts to attract attention. In fact, the idea of a carnival was carried out to the letter.

Mrs. Oscar Schnitzer, Mrs. H. H. Stinson and Mrs. Fred Curry had the entertainment and vaudeville in charge. Norval Bacon, Jr. gave the clog dance Friday evening and he, with Louise Stinson, danced the Charleston. Joseph Ennis gave selections from the Fire Prince, assisted by the little fairies who captivated the audience when they made their first appearance in the A. H. S. performance of this opera. They were Dorothea Evans, Virginia Cutler, Eleanor Shinn, Sarah Frances Patterson, Elaine Downes gave a fancy dance in Highland costume, and Betty McMahon a toe dance. The May pole dance was a feature of Saturday evening. It was danced by the following boys and girls: Alice Hall, Virginia Cutler, Betty Evans, Phyllis Swanson, Katharine Dumble, Miriam Stevens, Sarah Frances Patterson, Russell Curry, Raymond Merrill, Lester Gustin, Jr., Ross Teale, Richard Swanson, Norman Lacey and F. Alfred Patterson, Jr.

Fifty Years Ago This Week

There will be a Temperance Convention in Lowell May 12th of the presidents and delegates from the numerous Reform Clubs organized by Dr. Henry A. Reynolds. The convention will meet in Huntington Hall at 10 o'clock, a. m., for the purpose of organizing and transacting business and in the evening there will be a grand temperance mass meeting. The basis of this is one delegate for every one hundred and fraction of one hundred members.

Arlington Cadet Club is in a flourishing condition.

The Assessors started on their annual tour through the town last Monday.

There will be a religious service in Menotomy Hall next Saturday evening at 7 o'clock, by the Methodist Society. All are invited.

Mr. Abel Lawrence, so well known as a first-class harness maker, has opened a shop over J. A. Merrifield's store opposite the depot. He has our best wishes for his success.

A more uncomfortable day than Monday is rarely experienced even in this cold climate on the first day of May. It was not at all like the weather one naturally anticipates at this season of the year, but reminded one more possibly of the latter part of February, when the fierce winds and frosty air chills one to the very marrow.

IN 1901

Twenty-Five Years Ago This Week
The warm summer-like evenings bring out pedestrians. We would call attention to the fact that street corners are not meant for loitering places. Only as they are obliged to wait for cars is that thing permissible.

The Duplicate Whist Club will be entertained by Mrs. J. T. White on the last of the week. The last meeting of the club will be with Mrs. B. C. Haskell.

Mr. Lamson and family of Somerville, who bought the house recently owned by Mr. Burt Rankin, on Oakland avenue, have moved into the same.

It would seem the Methodist Conference had discovered a field for work here as they have established a Sunday morning service, which is held at Crescent Hall with Rev. Walter Grant-Smith as pastor. On Sunday they are intending to open a Sunday School.

The Arlington Heights Improvement Association will hold its meeting and election of officers in Crescent Hall, May 15th, Wednesday, at 8 p. m.

Sunday started in to be a beautiful warm day, but before the afternoon the wind shifted to the East and a thick coat was not uncomfortable.

SPEED THE BIG CAUSE OF AUTO ACCIDENTS

Careful survey of reports on automobile accidents covering a lengthened period by combined insurance companies, reveals the fact that fast driving to be the outstanding cause, exceeding the combined factors of inattention, carelessness, defective machinery and inexperience. The straight, clear roadway, with dry surface on a stone road, seems to be a lure to the average auto driver to "let her out" and the result is that accidents on these roads is as four to one as compared with highways of other build.

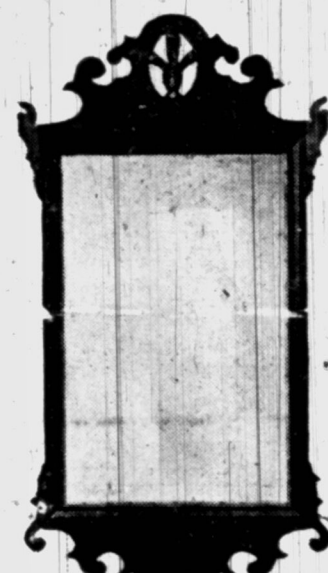

Out of 47,000 analyzed accidents last year, only 990 were not collision accidents. The remaining 46,000 were collisions of various kinds. Collisions can always be avoided by the driver who is moving slowly enough to have one hundred percent control of his car.

MRS. MARGARET F. DONAHUE

Mrs. Margaret F. (Duffy) Donahue, widow of former assistant chief of the Fire Department, Timothy J. Donahue, died at her home, 923 Mass. avenue, on Friday, April 30, following a long and trying illness. She had confined her to her bed. Her death has removed from that section of the town where she resided, a woman loved by her neighbors, besides a host of friends. She was born in Brookline, but had lived almost all her life in Arlington. Her married life was passed in the house in which she died. In her early life she was active in the work of St. Agnes Church.

The funeral took place on Monday morning, a solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated in St. Agnes church, with the pastor, Rev. Mathew J. Flaherty, celebrant; Rev. Joseph J. Leonard, deacon; and Rev. George Wiseman, sub-deacon. Musical sections of the mass were sung by members of the church choir and the solo sections were sung by William F. Kelley, musical director in the church and old time friend of the family. The bearers were Walter T. Duffy, Thomas Duffy, Walter Noyes, Fred Noyes, Chester Powers and Fred Powers, nephews of the deceased. Burial was in the family lot in Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

Defeats Woburn in First Game of Mystic Valley League Series.

Arlington 8, Woburn 3. Thus ended the opening game of the Mystic Valley League series, played Saturday afternoon on Spy Pond Field. The last year's champions showed that they can hold their own with the other teams. The ball game went up in the third inning when Arlington tallied five runs, enough to win the game. In this inning Woburn went to pieces. Arlington hit and Woburn fumbled. The Woburn battery became disgruntled and walked to the bench, being replaced by another battery. This showed poor sportsmanship.

Summer started in the pitcher's box for Arlington, this being his first game of the season and he did a good job. He was replaced during the latter part of the game by Stoker. The Woburn team came highly rated, but their work Saturday did not show that they were entitled to this rating.

Arlington hit better than did Woburn as is shown in the number of bingles tallied up for both teams. A fumble at a critical time in the game started things going. In the third inning, Hilliard got on base and was scored when Keefe lined the ball out to left field. Keefe was caught off third base and in their attempt to catch him, Woburn made a misplay and Keefe recovered third. Buckley had run down from second to third, but when Keefe got back, Buckley headed back to second. Then Keefe started for home plate and made it safe, landing on the plate on his left check. An argument arose, but the umpire ruled that Keefe was safe. Buckley, Donahue and Summer also tallied in this inning and things looked brighter for Arlington. In the fifth inning Woburn had a little run of luck and scored two runs. Again in the seventh inning, Woburn scored, but these tallies were offset by Arlington, who scored in the fourth and twice in the eighth inning.

EXTRAES FROM THE BALL GAME

Billy McNamara made a wonderful one hand catch of a line drive in the third inning. When letting it go by would have meant runs for Woburn.

Lefty Summer deserves a lot of credit for the way he pitched against the Woburn outfit. He went six innings and there is no doubt that he has the making of a good pitcher.

The old standby, Harold Hamm, behind the bat, kept the locals working all the time and his work was of the very best.

Peterson, who replaced Carroll for Woburn in the third inning, did a good job and he got support from Dumas, who worked behind the bat.

Francis Keefe tagged home runners with his feet in the third inning when he made a hit off the pitcher. He scratched the skin on his left side when he was hit by a line drive, but when it started down the line, he was out.

Keefe had a good record for this opening game with five times up, three hits, two runs and two assists. He stopped one drive with his chest that he felt like a two base hit when it started down the line.

Rock Stoker loomed up big during his three innings of the game and his speed certainly had Woburn baffled for a time. Ralph got into two tight places but by brilliant pitching and great work on the part of the rest of the team, was able to wiggle out both times.

The Woburn players might take notice of the mighty over the grandstand "Play Way". Hilliard has the making of a good second baseman. As yet he has not got into the batting side of baseball but this will come with practice.

Well, this was a good start in the Mystic Valley League series anyway.

ANOTHER VICTORY FOR A. H. S.

Local Team Wins From Winchester High School Nine, 4 to 1.

The High School baseball team added another victory to their list on Tuesday afternoon, defeating their old rivals, Winchester High, in a well played and very interesting game. This is their second victory in the Mystic Valley League series. Arlington started right off in the first inning, Keefe hitting the ball to left field. The ball went between the fielder's legs and Keefe scored a home run on the error. This was the last run, Arlington made until the sixth inning, when they added three more to their tally. With three men on bases and Hamm at the bat, the pitcher hit Hamm with the ball and thus forced in a run which broke the tie. Dale was sent in as a pinch hitter for Mahoney, and he smashed the ball out to center field scoring Canniff and Summer. Winchester scored its only run in the fourth inning, when Knowlton hit the ball to center field and scored O'Donnell. The game was well played by both teams. The only error scored for Arlington was early in the game, when a hard hit ball to third base took a bad bound, hit the player in the leg and allowed the Winchester player to reach first base.

Donahue pitched for Arlington and showed up in his old time form. His work was very good and he received valiant support from Hamm. Keefe was kept busy at third base, as was McNamara at short stop. Hilliard played a good game at second base. Buckley was at his best at first and had eleven put outs to his credit. Harriman and Murphy did good work for Winchester, and Harriman is sure to prove as effective as Tansey did last season for that team.

The score by innings:

ARLINGTON HIGH SCHOOL WINS TRACK CHAMPIONSHIP

James Kelley Breaks Record in Annual B. C. H. School Meet.

Once more the track team of the High School has brought glory to the school. On last Saturday afternoon the boys carried off first honors at a track meet held by Boston College High at University Heights. This is an annual interscholastic meet in which practically all the large schools of Greater Boston compete as well as some from outside, so that it is a state championship affair. Not only did the boys take the meet, but James Kelley broke the record in the 880-yard run. Capt. Eldridge, in the mile run, gave the winner a hard rub and finished second. The 100-yard dash was a whirlwind and Clabitt of Arlington finished second, just a half a step behind the winner. It was these three places that won the meet and gave Arlington eleven points and the winning of the meet. Doc McFarley can feel justly proud of his boys for they came through in grand style. There is no one in these parts known for winning game better than Dr. McCarty. Lynn Classical came in second and the other teams finished in the following order: Milton Academy, Huntington School, Boston College High, Brookline High, Hyde Park High, Corinna Academy, Fair Haven High, Cambridge Latin, Dorchester High, Lowell High, Somerville High and Boston English High. Kelley, in his whirlwind 880-yard run, made the time in two minutes, four and four-fifths seconds.

Arlington is away to a good start in track events. Watch them go.

SEMI-FINALS REACHED IN BOYS' CLUB BASKETBALL

The basketball games of the Boy's Club of Boston tournament reached the semi-finals last week with the Arlington A. A. still showing up well. Arlington was against the Quincy Boys' Club, but had little difficulty in winning the game ending 27 to 11 in favor of Arlington. The games which are being played in Charlestown, have reached the semi-finals. It looks as if the Arlington boys would be in for the finish in the senior grade at least. On the A. A. team are Keefe, McNamara, Donahue, J. Lane, A. Lane and Gandy.

The next home game in the Mystic Valley League comes Saturday afternoon, May 15, at 3:00 o'clock, when Arlington takes on Melrose. A game with Melrose should not need any advertising.

BEATRICE NIMMIS WINS THE HAWKES MEDAL

On the afternoon of April 29, pupils in the Junior High West gave a physical education demonstration for the Hawkes medal, under the direction of Miss Katherine R. Erhard and Perry W. Bean, directors of the physical work for the boys and girls in that school.

The pupils of the various grades in the school gave demonstrations in calisthenics, folk dancing, wand drills, mimetic exercises, relay races, that showed the exercise the student receives while at play. The judges for the marching contest were Prof. George E. Russell, Miss Helen Gallagher and John R. Hendrick. The girls were far ahead of the boys in this. There were at least 15 girls in the line who marched so well that the judges had a difficult task in selecting only one, for there was but one medal to be given. This was finally awarded to Beatrice Nimmis.

JUNIOR HIGH WEST WINS

Three Prizes Won by J. H. W. Pupils in Declamation Contest. In an interscholastic declamation contest between Junior High Center and Junior High West, held in the assembly hall of the latter school, on last Friday evening, Junior High West won two of the three prizes offered. The contest aroused much interest, every seat being taken and many being forced to stand for lack of seats. Never were judges put to such a difficult task as on this occasion. They were E. Warren Gible, Chairman of the Webster Debating Society of Boston University, who acted as chairman; Mrs. Millicent Stanger of Leland Powers School of Oratory, and Edward J. Flanagan, Oratory, and Edward J. Finnegan, of the English department of Medford High school. Every boy and girl taking part in the contest was worthy of a prize and Mr. Gible, in his address before awarding the prizes, paid tribute to each and every one of the contestants for their general excellence. Mr. McNorris Straton, the newly elected member of the School Committee, acted as chairman of the declamation and was presented by Principal Franklin P. Hawkes. In charge of the Center declamers was William J. Power, formerly of the Junior High West, and who was instrumental in starting this declamation contest in the school.

The first honors went to Margaret Mullen of Junior High West, whose selection was "Mark Antony's Funeral Oration." Second prize was won by Harold Magnuson, also of Junior High West, who gave "Toussaint L'Ouverture." Third prize was won by Barbara Foss of Junior High Center, her selection being "The Mysterious Portrait."

Others taking part and their selections were: Lawrence Whitman, "Liberty or Death," speech by Patrick Henry; Betty Greig, "A Dickens Monologue;" Bruce Fowler, "Deny your God;" all pupils from Junior High West. Ona Hamilton, "A newsboy in church;" Evelyn Mulra, "Seeing things at night;" Core Spooner, "The Bell of Zanzibar;" and Ronnie O'Brien, "Lascia," these pupils from Junior High Center.

UNUSUAL HONORS

At the annual meeting of Mass. Department of the Military Order of Loyal Legion, Alfred H. Knowles, of Arlington, was unanimously elected for a third term as Commander, certainly a high honor and one very rare in the history of this department.

(Correspondence) May 4, 1926

Editor of the Advocate: In your report of the Town Meeting of last week concerning the effort to attach a salary of $100 to the position of moderator, you made mention of the names of Earl A. Ryder and Jacob Bitzer. This was correct.

But when the moderator Judge Brackett, said positively that he would not accept the office again if any salary was voted, something had to be done at once so the citizens of the town would not be deprived of the services of this high-minded man who has demonstrated his public spirit and civic interest on so many occasions.

With a view of preventing Judge Brackett's withdrawal, I made a motion to reconsider the salary proposal by a rising vote in order that we might show him our appreciation of his self-sacrificing work for the community.

Now, if the Advocate had sufficient space to mention the two men whose efforts would have led to losing our efficient moderator, why not mention the one whose motion would show to Judge Brackett the esteem and respect in which we hold him?

Yours very truly,
WALTER S. ELLIETT,
107 Ronald road,
Arlington, Mass.
